

Recreation Winter Updates

Mark your calendars so you don't miss our winter excitement. Call REC DIRECTOR JEN ZEISLER at 518-893-7432 x 307 or watch greenfieldny.org for more information. FB @GreenfieldNY/Instagram @townofgreenfieldny

Santa's Mailbox: Drop off a letter to Santa at Town Hall. Wait for a return letter!

TOGether Gift Drive. Bring an unwrapped gift to Town Hall. We are working with our elementary school and Food Pantry to provide gifts to families in need this holiday season. Drop off anytime by Dec. 20.

Brookhaven Winter Park, watch town website and social media for opening date. Cross-country ski and snowshoe on our 20 kilometers of beautiful Greenfield open space. The View Restaurant will be open for after-ski refreshments. New web page this year.

New Greenfield Winterfest Event, Jan. 21, 11 a.m.-2 p.m. The event begins with a 5K snowshoe race, sign up on website. Followed by family fun event with snowman building contest, sledding, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing and entertainment. Drink and food specials too.

Full Moon Party Jan. 27, 6 p.m. at Brookhaven Golf Course. Walk, ski or snowshoe along a lighted path to a community bonfire with warm spirits provided. No registration necessary.

5K Snowshoe Races, (above) and March 2. Sign up links will be online.

Women's Nordic Ski Day, Jan, tbd, Brookhaven Winter Park, Sponsored by the NYSSRA, gathers participants to a day of skiing, lessons, lunch and fun. Grouped by experience, so all are welcome even those brand new to skiing. Equipment available. Sign up will be online.

Winter Basketball Clinics, Greenfield Elementary School, info coming soon.

TOG Social Hour, January, to be announced. Watch town website and social media for ongoing dates. Celebrate TOG with a mix of our Town Hall staff, elected leaders and residents. Live music and drink specials.

New Country-Line Dancing, TOG Hoedown, tbd at The View at Brookhaven. Learn to line dance.